

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS
Docket No: 62-01
22 February 2001

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 14 February 2001. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you reenlisted in the Navy on 8 July 1991 after more than three years of prior active service. On 17 July 1992 the commanding officer recommended your separation based on your failure to complete a program of prescribed treatment for your alcohol abuse. Subsequently, you received a general discharge by reason of alcohol abuse rehabilitation failure on 18 August 1992. At that time you were assigned a reenlistment code of RE-4.

The Board noted that an RE-4 reenlistment code is required by regulatory guidance and must be assigned to individuals separated due to alcohol abuse rehabilitation failure. The Board thus concluded that there is no error or injustice in your reenlistment code. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

The Board did not consider whether your characterization of service should be changed, since you did not ask for such
